Julie Chubet & Greg Cassista join Serra & DelVecchio

• SHELTON, CT, AUGUST 17, 2011

Serra & DelVecchio Insurance with offices in Shelton and Middletown have added 2 new employees.

Julie Chubet, Vice President of Employee Benefits, is a graduate of Central Connecticut State University and has been in the insurance industry since 1992 specializing in employee group benefits. Julie serves on the board of Connecticut Benefit Brokers, a chapter of the National Association of Health Underwriters and has been appointed to the broker advisory boards of Anthem and ConnectiCare.

In addition, she serves as the co-chair for the Southington Chamber Women and Plantsville Cares.

Fred Serra, a partner in the firm says "Julie's strong community ties and extensive business experience and relationships will make her a tremendous asset to the Serra & DelVecchio team".

Greg Cassista, Sales Consultant, graduated from Babson College (Babson Park, MA) with a Degree in Finance & Marketing. Greg joined a large Ameriprise Financial practice as an Associate Financial Advisor. He spent almost two years with the $350 million practice before he took his talents and pursued one of his childhood dreams as a professional hockey player. Greg joined the Wichita Thunder of the Central Hockey League for the better part of two seasons before having his career cut short due to a multiple injuries.

Shifting his focus back to the financial world, he joined the retail banking side of JPMorgan Chase. Greg has now joined the Serra & DelVecchio culture to help cultivate relationships within the already established client base and develop more opportunities within Long Term Care, Life Insurance and Disability Insurance business.

"Greg's hardworking and determined attitude along with his financial and entrepreneurial background is sure to make his job at Serra & DelVecchio very successful" remarked Justin DelVecchio a partner in the firm.
